RRR Workshop 2014

立命館大学薬学部 北原亮

International workshop on RRR will be held in Kyoto from 1st to 2nd January 2014. The workshop venue is in the SUZAKU (朱雀) Campus of Ritsumeikan University. The workshop will include invited lectures about solution and solid NMR applications on biomolecules. The workshop aims at stimulating students and young researchers in the biological NMR community for deeper understanding of the state-of-the-art methods and resulting insights into bio-molecular structure and functions through intimate discussions in a relatively small group of participants (~50 people).

We invite all of you to join the discussion in the RRR workshop. We are looking forward to welcoming you in Kyoto in February 2014.
